ADT is proud to sponsor National Night Out in helping protect homes and connecting communities

ADT is on a mission to help every community feel more secure. Our ADT Solutions Advisors can showcase how our smarter security systems can be customized to your home and neighborhood's needs: from Google Nest Compatibility to remote access to dependable neighbors. See how ADT can help protect your home, family, and community at your next National Night Out event.

Homes

Stay connected to your ADT systems with Google Nest smart home products, available with professional or DIY installation, so you can control your system whether you're at home or on the go.

Apartments

ADT provides smart home security solutions for multi-unit buildings of all sizes, including mobile security for both residents and management staff.

Businesses

ADT provides professionally installed smart security solutions, including video security and automation technology, that help protect businesses' profits and the livelihoods of everyone who works for and owns them.

When Every Second Counts, Count on ADT.

Every second counts in an emergency: ADT's 24/7 monitoring is always there, ready to respond when you need help. Our emergency response team reaches out to you in seconds* of an alarm signal being received.

*Average response time is 14 seconds, based on ADT call center data 2025

Grant access with Trusted Neighbor™: Easily schedule or grant access to your home to dependable neighbors, friends, and helpers - all on your terms.

Recognized nationally, serving locally: With over 6 million customers and 13,000 employees across the country, we're in your neighborhood.
